

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dr. Chung-Hao Tuan began his career with the state of South Dakota as a psychiatrist at the South Dakota Human Services Center in August 1976, and throughout his 29 years of employment, also served as a consulting psychiatrist for Avera Sacred Heart Hospital and previously taught as an assistant professor with The University of South Dakota, Department of Psychiatry, at Vermillion; and,

Whereas, Chung-Hao Tuan, M.D., is a medical professional who trained in Taipei, Taiwan, met requirements of the Educational Council for Foreign Medical Graduates, served as a resident psychiatrist at Middletown State Hospital in the state of New York, met licensure requirements of the South Dakota State Board of Medical Examiners, and achieved Psychiatry Certification by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology; and,

Whereas, Dr. Tuan is highly respected for his knowledge, as well as his calm, caring, compassionate, and professional treatment of patients and as an inspiration to others with his quiet and courteous manner of dedicated concern for the patients, their families, and all involved with providing the highest quality psychiatric treatment for patients; and,

Whereas, Dr. Tuan has been a loving husband to his wife, Ki-No, and a caring father to his children, In-Zu, In-Fin, and In-Lin, and a devoted grandfather to three grandchildren; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments of this exemplary medical professional, outstanding state employee, and admirable man:

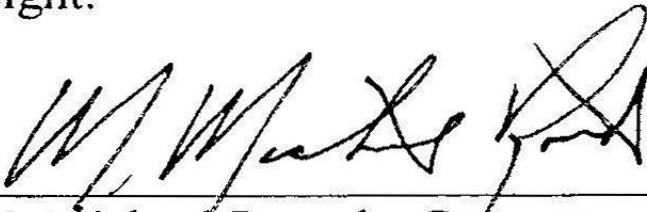

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 7, 2008, as in South Dakota, and I join Dr. Tuan's family, friends, and co-workers in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
